NEW DEAN NAMED FOR UM'S PHARMACY-ALLIED HEALTH SCIENCES

MISSOULA --

David Forbes, chairman of the Department of Pharmacy Practice at North Dakota State University, has been selected as the new dean of the University of Montana's School of Pharmacy and Allied Health Sciences.

Forbes will replace Frank A. Pettinato, acting dean of the school, July 1. His salary will be $63,000, and his appointment is subject to approval by the Montana Board of Regents.

Since completing his graduate work in pharmacy at the University of Wisconsin at Madison in 1973, Forbes has been a faculty member and administrator at NDSU's College of Pharmacy. In addition to being a department chairman, Forbes has also coordinated continuing education programs in pharmacy and advised pre-physical therapy students at NDSU.

He has also edited North Dakota's pharmacy publication, served on a medical advisory council and has recruited students and sought funding for NDSU's pharmacy program.
